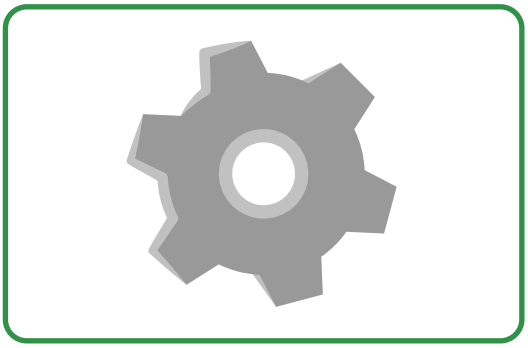
Privacy settings

Privacy settings help you stay in control of who you share things with online.

Here are three steps you can take to change your privacy settings so that you only share things with people you know and trust.

1 Find 'settings'

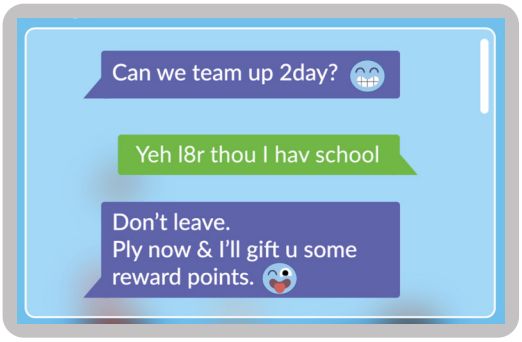


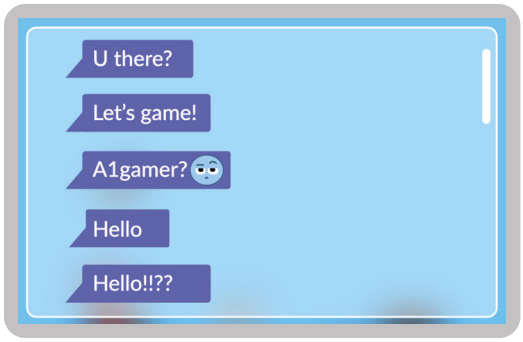
2 Find 'privacy'

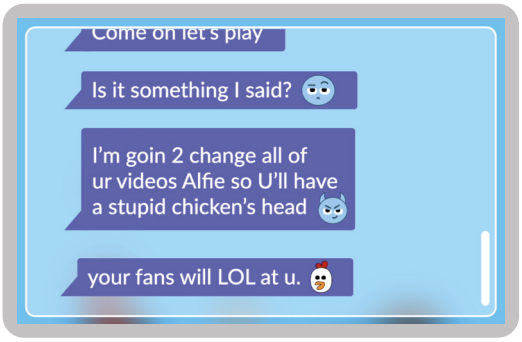
3 Click on who you want to share with

Alfie and the Gamer

Look at the messages the Gamer sent to Alfie.
In the box next to each message, write how the gamer tries to get Alfie to play with him.







2 Who's Magnus?

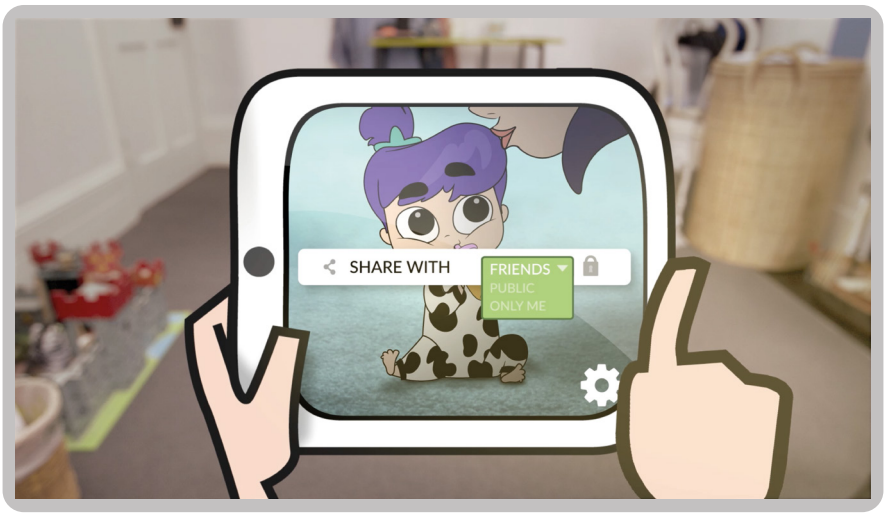
What is OK to share?

Read each example and decide if it's:

OK to share | It depends... | Not OK to share

Alfie shares a video of his cat looking grumpy.

Megan shares a photo and tags location.



Megan secretly films her big brother singing in his bedroom and shares it with all her friends.

Ellie shares a silly selfie only with Sam. Sam sends it to other friends in his class.

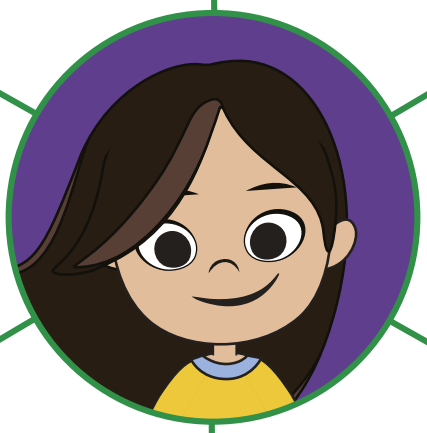
Alfie takes a photo of Sam and Ellie playing music in his room, and tags them both.

Ellie shares a picture of her new guitar.

Sam shares a video of himself pretending to be his pet dog.

Ellie's Support Circle

These are the people who are there to help Ellie when she needs it.



Mum

- Will always make time for Ellie, even if she is really busy.
- Gives great advice.

Miss Hunter
Teacher

- Will always help to sort out a problem whether it's big or small.
- Sees her every school day.

Alfie

- Been best friends with Ellie since they started school.
- Cheers Ellie up when she is sad.

Mr Hall
Teaching Assistant

- Very friendly and easy to talk to.
- Never judges anyone.

Auntie Emma

- Always helps Ellie to understand things more clearly.
- Is a good problem solver.

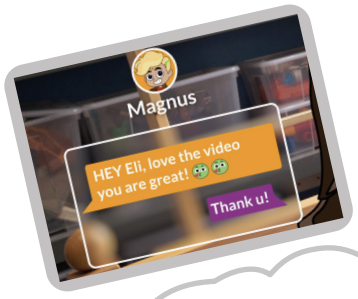
Grandpa

- Always knows what to say to make Ellie feel better.
- Often picks Ellie up from school and always asks how her day was.

3 They have fans, but we have friends!

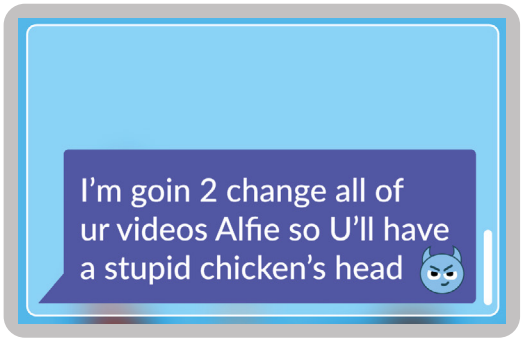
Who's Magnus?

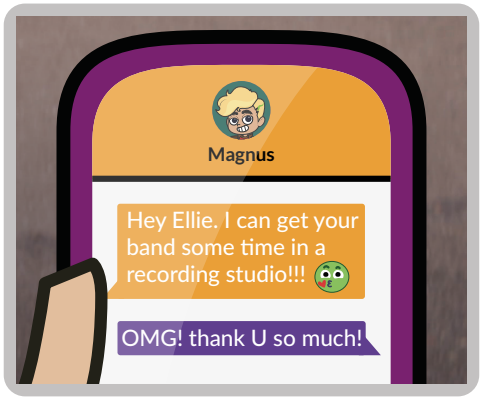
In each thought bubble, write one thing which made Alfie feel suspicious of Magnus.

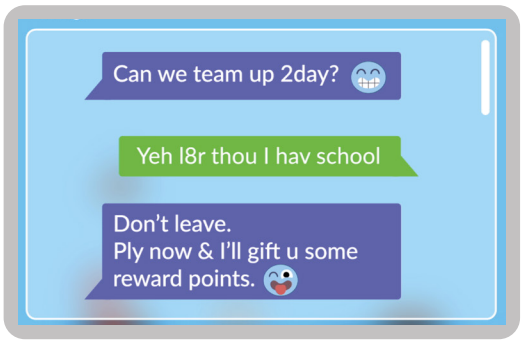


Spot the Tactics

Write the tactic used by the Gamer or Magnus next to each of these messages.



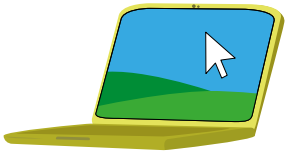




Can you help Grandpa George?

Sam's Grandpa George has just got a brand new laptop. He hopes that having it will help him solve the following problems:

- He doesn't live near a supermarket.
- He misses his son Alex who lives in Australia.
- Sometimes he feels a bit lonely.



What ideas can you give Grandpa George about how going online could help him?
