It has been another fantastic week in school.

Earlier this week, we held a Remembrance Service in the school hall to mark Armistice Day. At 11am on Tuesday, the children all respectfully observed a 2-minute silence.

To show our support for the Royal British Legion, who work with war veterans and their families, we have been selling poppies at school. Collectively, we have sold a large quantity of poppies, so we wanted to say a big thank you to all parents and carers who have sent in money to help raise funds.

In addition, our Music Scholars had the wonderful opportunity to perform at The Royal Albert Hall on Tuesday, and WOW, what a show! They all did an amazing job, and their beaming smiles showed what an unforgettable experience it was for everyone. Well done to all the Music Scholars who sang beautifully and represented our school with pride.

It was great to see so many children dressed for Children in Need today - thank you for all the donations.

As always, if you have any queries please email postbox@holytrinitydartford.co.uk

Warm regards
Mrs Wall

Collective Worship

On Tuesday, we held a Remembrance Service in which the children were reminded of Armistice Day and read the poem In Flanders Fields by John McCrae.

In worship, we also learned about the significance of the white poppy, which is worn to remember the victims of war and represents a commitment to peace.

Children in Need

Today, we supported Children in Need. The school was a sea of yellow, spots and Pudsey! Thank you to all who donated and helped to raise funds for an amazing charity. We were blown away by the number of Pudsey colourings we received for our competition, and as we had so many arrive today, we will be announcing the winner during celebration worship on Friday 21st November.

Royal Albert Hall

WOW! Our Music Scholars attended the Music for Youth Proms Creative Project on Tuesday. The Music Scholars represented our school perfectly and sang beautifully. It was a long and exciting day for them all, and we hope they all enjoyed it as much as we did. We were extremely proud of them all.

Parent Workshops

We will be holding a first aid workshop for parents, please email postbox@holyltrinitydartford.co.uk to secure your place. If you would like to attend you MUST attend all three sessions.
